Dear teacher,

First of all we would like to thank you for your dedication and commitment to teaching your students the human rights values and the history of the Holocaust. We find your project very interesting and hence The Olga Lengyel Institute is offering you a grant of the equivalent of 300$ to put your project into practice.

The Olga Lengyel Institute (TOLI) is a New York-based public charitable institution that provides professional development to inspire and sustain educators teaching about the Holocaust, other genocides, and human rights in the United States and in Europe. Since 2018 we are organizing summer seminars for teachers on Holocaust Education and Human Rights in Poland. Every year, between 30 and 35 people from across Poland gather to learn from internationally renowned lecturers, to interact with survivors and to think creatively and collaboratively about how to teach the Holocaust and social justice. Following the seminar the participants have the opportunity to apply for a grant to implement educational/social projects, to implement what they learned in the seminar and to create wider networks of people committed to learning about the Holocaust and acting for social justice. Paweł Kalinowski recently submitted an application for a project entitled "Treblinka -Podróż ku Pamięci" and was awarded a grant of the equivalent of 300$ to implement the project according to the objectives and activities described in the application.
